LETTER TO PURGATORY

You've just been invited to the most beautiful celebration of all time in Heaven! But not everyone has arrived yet. Some people are still getting ready in Purgatory.

Write a letter to someone in Purgatory. It could be a loved one who has died (like a grandparent or family friend). Or, if you don't know who to choose, you can write to "a soul in Purgatory who needs a friend."

You can tell them that you're thinking of them today, that you are praying for them, etc.

A decorative writing template for a letter to Purgatory. It features a light beige background with a subtle paper texture. The page is framed by four ornate, golden-brown scrollwork corner decorations. A horizontal line is positioned near the top, and another is near the bottom. The central area is filled with ten horizontal lines for writing, with two vertical lines on the left and right sides to define the letter's width.
